Petersburgh, May 23. N. S.

ON the thirtieth of the laſt Month in the Evening the Czar came hither from Chronſhloſs, but returned back the next day, and on the fourth Inſtant put to Sea with four Frigats to Convoy a ſecond Tranſport of Proviſions to Wyburg, where they arrived on the fifth, and having unloaden returned back on the eighth, without meeting with any Accident. The Czar cruized all that time at Sea, but ſaw no Swediſh Veſſel. There are three Swediſh Ships of force not far from Revel, which have winter'd in Helinfoſs, but it is ſuppoſed that they wait for Stores and Proviſions before they will venture to come up hither. The Magazines of Wyburg are now ſufficiently provided for the enſuing Year: The firſt Tranſport carried Fifteen thouſand Sacks of Meal, and the ſecond had Twenty two thouſand Sacks on Board with all other Stores in proportion. When the Czar returned the firſt time from Wyburg, he was in very great danger of being loſt; for having imbark'd on a half Galley, and miſſed his Frigats, which ſhould have ſtayed for him, but did not obſerve the Signal, he was forced to croſs over the Sea in a violent Storm in that ſort of Veſſel which is very improper for ill Weather, and they were more than once afraid of being caſt away. On the eighth Inſtant in the Night a Courier arrived with Letters from Monſieur Schaphiroff of the ſixth of April, old Stile, and the important News, that the Peace was confirmed with the Port for Twenty five Years, to which the good Offices of the Engliſh and Dutch Miniſters, had not a little Contributed. The Czar received the News at Chronſhloſſe on the ninth in the Morning, and his Majeſty came hither the ſame Evening. Yeſterday the Czar made a great Entertainment, and deſired the Miniſters of England and Holland to return his Thanks to their Principals for this Mark of their Friendſhip. The Czar will ſet out for Pomerania about the End of this Month. The Admiral Apraxin is arrived here from the Ukrain, and will ſtay here this Summer to command in Chief on theſe Frontiers, during the Abſence of his Czariſh Majeſty.

Turin, May 28. N. S. The Princeſs of Carignan being much indiſpoſed of late, is adviſ'd to drink the Waters of Lucca, for which Place ſhe deſigns to go by the way of Genoa: She has been at the Venerie, to take her leave of their Royal Highneſſes. Upon the Twenty fourth Inſtant, his Royal Highneſs, with the reſt of the Court, came hither to aſſiſt at a Proceſſion, and the next Day they return'd to the Venerie, having chang'd the reſolution of ſtaying here, and deferred it till the next Month. All things are quiet on our Frontiers, as well as on the ſide of the Enemy. The Cavalry of his Royal Highneſs is now in motion, and will very ſoon be encamped at Orbaſſon, as in former Years.

Hamburg, June 10. N. S. Yeſterday we had News from Breſlaw, that his Swediſh Majeſty was come within Fourteen Leagues of Cracow, and this is confirmed by other Letters from Dantzick, and likewiſe by thoſe which came from Cracow. His Czariſh Majeſty has provided a ſecond Tranſport of Proviſions for Wyburg, and is returned to Peterſbourg, where he received, upon the Day of his arrival, an Expreſs from Conſtantinople, which brought the ratification of the Treaty of Peace between his Majeſty and the Port. The Muſcovite Troops that were encamped about Dantzick, are upon their March from thoſe Territories. A Body of Seven thouſand Horſe of that Nation, are arrived at Landsberg in their way to Pomerania. The Governour of Elbing has ſent a Meſſenger to the Miniſter of the Czar, who reſides here to let him know, that he Daily expects the arrival of the Czar, with all his Family, who will remain at Elbing, whilſt his Majeſty makes the Campaign in Pomerania. The Daniſh Fleet is at preſent at Bornholm, in a readineſs to obſtruct any Enterprizes that may be made upon them by the Suedes, but the Diſtemper which has lately raged among them, has been the Occaſion that they are not ſo well Man'd, as they might have been otherwiſe. The Miniſter of the King of Denmark has receiv'd Orders not to ſend any more Letters to Coldingen, and his Majeſty is expected at Rendesburg in a few Days. The Inhabitants of the Dutchy of Bremen, are under an apprehenſion, that the Daniſh Troops will March into their Territories, and thereupon the Principal Inhabitants have removed their beſt Effects into this Place. His Highneſs the Duke of Wolfenbuttle is expected here this Night or to Morrow, and he is to have an Apartment at the Houſe of the Count of Schonborn; that Prince's coming hither has occaſioned a great many different Speculations. The Diet of Holſtein is finiſhed, to the ſatisfaction of both the Regencies.

Hamburg, June 12. N. S. The Muſcovite Forces have at laſt quitted the Territories of Dantzick, and have done it with ſo good Order, that the Senate of that City have had no reaſon to complain. The Prince Doloruki, who Commanded thoſe Troops has ſent a Party of Five hundred Men into the Biſhoprick of Warſaw, to wait there for the arrival of his Czariſh Majeſty. General Ronne is to paſs by Thorn, with a Body of Muſcovites, which conſiſts only of Infantry, and will go directly thorough the Upper Poland for Pomerania. The Aid de Camp which was ſent to the King of Pruſſia by Prince Menzikoff has received an Anſwer to the two Propoſals he was ordered to make to that Court, to this Effect, that his Pruſſian Majeſty could not permit any Bridges to be made over the Oder; and that when the Muſcovite Troops had Inveſted Stetin, he would forbid his Subjects to carry any Victuals or other Proviſions into the Place.

Falmouth, June 6. This Day came in here Her Majeſty's Ships Ruby and Bedford, to Convoy the Tyn Veſſels that are bound for London, &c. Juſt now ſailed the Mercury Packet with two Mails for Lisbon, Capt. Green Commander; and, the Coulſton Galley of this Place, for the Canaries and Newfoundland.
